A NOTE ON THE STUDY PROCESS: This meeting is third in a number of meetings for this study. The study committee seeks input from across the range of relevant disciplines and stakeholder communities as aggregate input to the study, but such wide-ranging representation cannot occur for each meeting when considered as an isolate. Future meetings are likely to have different focus areas. In addition to meetings, the committee may also solicit input from experts through other mechanisms such as electronic mail and white papers. Input from the general public is welcome, both through electronic mail and white papers, as well as through other mechanisms yet to be determined by the study committee. Note: Committee and speaker bios are available in a handout. Speaker introductions will be brief in order to allow more time for presentations and discussion.
